

SOME FAMILY DAY EXCURSIONS

Please note that this information is given in good faith but we cannot control the accuracy of external websites which may change at short notice.

Always contact the venue directly if possible to check arrangements.

| Brecon  | Builth Wells   | Hay-on-Wye  |
|---|--|---|
| A pleasant country and market town with a good range of shops in a compact centre.Market day is held on a Tuesday (in a market hall). Famous for its Jazz Festival in the summer. Brecon Leisure Centre25 Metre Swimming Pool, Ten Pin Bowling, Climbing Wall, Tennis Courts, Health Suite, Sports Hall etc.LD3 9SR01874 623677 Coliseum Cinema (Two Screens)Wheat Street, Brecon, LD3 7DG01874 622501 Royal Regiment of Wales MuseumThe Barracks, Brecon LD3 7DW01874 613310Famous for 7VCs won at Roukes Drift S.A. Brecon Museum and Art GalleryCaptains Walk, Brecon, LD3 7DW01874 624121Award winning museum, featuring a Victorian Assize Court. Brecon CathedralThe Cathedral Close, Brecon, LD3 9DP01874 623857 Narrow boat canal cruisesOn the Monmouthshire and Brecon canal with Dragonfly CruisesCanal Road, Brecon07831 1685222 | Home of the Royal Welsh Show held each year in July. Sometimes attended by royalty it is billed as the largest agricultural show of its kind in the UK. A busy market town with a lovely riverside park. The Victorians popularised the spa water and Wells was then added to the name. A short distance away the village of Cilmery is reputed to be the place where Llewelyn ap Griffith, the last "true Prince of Wales" was killed in a skirmish with supporters of Edward I in 1282. | A small market town straddling the England-Wales border. Home to the internationally renowned Hay Festival which attracts the literati, politicians and celebrities on their way up - and some on their way down. Most famous as the secondhand book capital of the UK. |